GALLERY GUICHARD
ART THAT TOUCHES THE SOUL

CURATED BY: FRANCES AND ANDRE GUICHARD

OUR STORY

Located on the first floor of the Bronzeville Artist Lofts, Gallery Guichard features a rotating collection of works from numerous global artists including, Abiola Akintola, Stephen 'Sayo' Olalekan, Pearlie Taylor, Marlene Campbell, Andre Guichard and many others.

A gallery commanding as much respect as Michigan Avenue in the Bronzeville community, the largest African American art district in the country, owners Andre Guichard, Frances Guichard and Stephen Mitchell, opened the gallery in 2005 with the mission to create platforms to expose collectors to multicultural artists specializing in the art of the African Diaspora. Through fine art exhibitions, experiential events, and art tours, Gallery Guichard gives emerging underrepresented talent and mid-career artists an opportunity to develop their imagination and creativity.

Gallery Guichard offers a range of fine art services, including hosting exhibitions, artist talks, framing, crating, shipping, and art moving.

Gallery Guichard has proven itself as the safe haven for fine art enthusiasts looking to immerse themselves in rich culture that touches the soul!

This is our 15th year as a gallery in Bronzeville (Chicago neighborhood), home of 80+ years of artistic movements in the African American art community.

EXHIBIT SYNOPSIS

We are very excited as this is our 15th year in existence here at Gallery Guichard. We are also excited about the amazing response to our transformative digital experience, the Virtual Exhibition Catalog. At Gallery Guichard we have art that represents a range of human activities and experiences, that expresses imagination, conceptual ideas and the mastery of medium. This exhibition features six Gallery Guichard artists. All six of these artists are collected nationally and internationally and have received tremendous appreciation since being represented by us. Please enjoy VEC 7.
