OUR STORY

Located on the first floor of the Bronzeville Artist Lofts, Gallery Guichard features a rotating collection of works from numerous global artists including, Abiola Akintola, Stephen 'Sayo' Olalekan, Pearlie Taylor, Marlene Campbell, Andre Guichard and many others.

A gallery commanding as much respect as Michigan Avenue in the Bronzeville community, the largest African American art district in the country, owners Andre Guichard, Frances Guichard and Stephen Mitchell, opened the gallery in 2005 with the mission to create platforms to expose collectors to multicultural artists specializing in the art of the African Diaspora. Through fine art exhibitions, experiential events, and art tours, Gallery Guichard gives emerging underrepresented talent and mid-career artists an opportunity to develop their imagination and creativity.

Gallery Guichard offers a range of fine art services, including hosting exhibitions, artist talks, framing, crating, shipping, and art moving.

Gallery Guichard has proven itself as the safe haven for fine art enthusiasts looking to immerse themselves in rich culture that touches the soul!

This is our 15th year as a gallery in Bronzeville (Chicago neighborhood), home of 80+ years of artistic movements in the African American art community. We are also a member of the Bronzeville Art District, the largest African American art district in the country.

EXHIBIT SYNOPSIS

Welcome to our new exhibition: Human Kind! This show is a collaboration of artists from the midwest, including Chicago, Detroit, and Milwaukee. Artists capture what makes us human in this thought-provoking, and colorful exhibit. These pieces showcase our ability to love, to care, to show emotion, empathy and feelings, and expressions of human kind that delve into relationships, family, friends and those things that make us human. This exhibit is full of vibrant color, cubism, abstraction and art that touches the soul as it brings joy and makes you think about music, love and laughter. Original art is no longer just about decoration and beautification. Original art has become as much about wellness as it is about decoration. Many of our collectors are finding that during quarantine, art buying is helping them to relax and cleanse their spirits. Enjoy!
